Announcements

- Fathers Day! Best wishes to all the Fathers of our parish and especially to our Fr Gregory 😊 Remember the Bishop and all the priests in your good prayers today.
- Banns of Marriage are announced the third time for Mr Gregory Hopkins and Miss Victoria Luna, both of our parish. The wedding will be held here at 2:00pm next Saturday.
- Procession next Sunday Annual Corpus Christi Procession immediately after the morning Mass, with Benediction in our Lady's Grotto.
- Bookstore New arrivals – check it out!
- Our Kneelers are Suffering! Please use care when raising and lowering the kneelers, and do not let the children play with them. When not in use, the kneelers should be “stowed away” in the raised position. (This does not mean they need to be raised and lowered multiple times during Mass.) If you notice a broken kneeler, inform Father or one of the ushers.
- Many thanks to the Sisters and Mothers who managed to provide yet another outstanding Catechism Camp for our youngsters! God bless you, one and all!

God Father, praise and glory Thy children bring to Thee;
 Thy grace and peace to mankind shall now forever be.
 And Thou, Lord co-eternal, God's sole-begotten Son:
 O Jesus, King anointed, Who hast redemption won!
 O Holy Ghost, Creator, Thou Gift of God most high:
 Life, Love, and holy Wisdom, our weakness Thou supply.
 O Most Holy Trinity,
 Undivided Unity!
 Holy God, mighty God,
 God immortal, be adored!

Hail Mary! beloved Daughter of the Eternal Father!
 Hail Mary! Admirable Mother of the Son!
 Hail Mary! Faithful Spouse of the Holy Ghost!
 Hail Mary! Temple of the most Blessed Trinity!

The Father of all elected the Blessed Virgin for a unique and special mission. He created her pure, spotless, immaculate, preserving her from the least hint or touch of sin. Mary lived and breathed God's love; it was the sole motivation and the goal of her very existence.

God the Son chose sweet Mary, the Spiritual Vessel, Vessel of Honor, Singular Vessel of devotion, as His very dwelling place. More than making her the blessed Vessel through which He came to us, He made her the indispensable channel through which He shares with us the merits of His life and His death.

Then there is her relationship with God the Holy Ghost. The saints spoke of Mary as the spouse of the Holy Ghost, since it was by His overshadowing that she conceived Christ in her womb. Her union with God not only bore fruit in the birth of Christ, but in every magnificent increase of sanctifying grace throughout her life.

For ourselves: Let us ask Mary to make us more aware of the Father's love and designs upon our souls, more loving children toward Him. To make us "mothers" of the Son by nurturing His life within ourselves, feeding that Life with the holy sacraments and the graces of every day. And to nourish our relationship with the Holy Ghost, so that His grace will produce more and more Life within us, and pour out upon those we meet. We are in truth temples of the Blessed Trinity, so long as we remain in the state of sanctifying grace. Watching Mary, copying Mary, loving Mary, our union with the three Divine Persons cannot but grow. She gave God glory in everything, and thus we also conclude: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

FAITH OF OUR FATHERS, HOLY FAITH! WE WILL BE TRUE TO THEE 'TIL DEATH: SAINTS CECILIA AND PETER OF VERONA

When the incorrupt body of Saint Cecilia was discovered in the catacombs several centuries after her death, the gesture of her fingers continued to give mute testimony of her unshakable belief in One God in Three Divine Persons.

Saint Peter of Verona was brutally murdered for his staunch defense of the Unity and Trinity of God. As he lay dying, he dipped his finger in his blood and inscribed in the roadway: Credo in unum Deum - I believe in One God.
