Announcements

- Reign of Mary publication is available in the vestibule of the church. This summer issue highlights the fact that the Catholic Church alone has the “Fullness of the Faith” taught by Christ. Other religions may have some goodness, but being mixed with various species of error, they must be rejected. Included in this issue is Joseph Pham’s Open Letter to the Clergy of Vietnam telling of his rejection of the “Vatican II sect” into which he was ordained 13 years ago, and of his pursuit of unconditional ordination from a bishop who has nothing to do with this new church.
- Modesty standards include an admonition that men & boys be properly attired for Holy Mass, and that ladies wear proper attire that covers the shoulders and the knees at all times.
- Priests’ meeting last week was attended by 27 priests and three deacons, with His Excellency.
- St Mechtild Music Festival July 26-28! Check out www.stmechtildmusicfestival.com for more information and to register to attend! If you are interested in volunteering - food service, lodging, transportation - please contact Mary Hopkins at 303-280-0194, email olotsmedia@gmail.com, or visit www.stmechtildmusicfestival.com/volunteer.

STORIES OF MARY'S LOVING MERCY SHOWN THROUGH HER BROWN SCAPULAR

O beautiful Flower of Carmel,
most fruitful vine, splendor of heaven,
holy and singular
who brought forth the Son of God
remaining a pure virgin:
assist us, assist us in this necessity.
O Star of the Sea, O Star of the Sea!
help and protect us;
show us that thou art our Mother.

➤ On the very day that Our Lady gave the Scapular to St. Simon Stock, he was hurriedly called by the Lord Peter of Linton: “Come quickly, Father, my brother is dying in despair!”

St. Simon Stock placed his large Scapular over the dying man, He repented immediately and died a friend of God.

That night the dead man appeared to his brother: “I have been saved through the most powerful Queen and the habit of that man as a shield.”

➤ Just 25 years later, Pope Gregory X was buried wearing the Scapular. When his tomb was opened 600 years after his death, his Scapular was found intact. The Scapular was also found like new in the graves of St. John Bosco and St. Alphonsus Liguori.

➤ You will understand why the devil works against those who promote the Scapular when you hear the story of Venerable Francis Ypes. One day his scapular fell off. As he replaced it, the devil howled, “Take it off! Take off the habit which snatches so many souls from us.”

Then Francis made the devil admit that there are three things of which the demons are most afraid: the Holy Name of Jesus, the Holy Name of Mary, and the Holy Scapular of Carmel.

➤ A French priest on pilgrimage to Einsiedeln, Switzerland was on his way to Mass when he remembered that he had forgotten his Scapular. Although late, he returned to his room for it.

During Mass, a young man approached the altar, pulled out a revolver and shot the priest in the back ... but the priest continued to say Mass.

In the sacristy the abbot exclaimed, “I thought the man missed you!”

When the vestments were removed, the bullet was found, adhering to his little brown Scapular.

➤ One day in 1944, a Carmelite missionary in the Holy Land was called to an internment camp to give the Last Rites. The Arab bus driver made Father get off four miles from the camp because the road was dangerously muddy. After 2 miles had been covered, his feet sank deeper and deeper in the mud. Trying to get solid footing he slipped into a muddy pool. Sinking to death in a desolate place he thought of Mary and Her Scapular, for he was wearing the full habit, and looked toward Mt. Carmel.

There, in the distance, was the holy mountain of Carmel, the birthplace of devotion to God’s Mother. He cried out, “Holy Mother of Carmel, help me! Save me!” A moment later he found himself on solid ground. He told me, “I know I was saved by the Blessed Virgin through Her Brown Scapular. My shoes were lost in the mud and I was covered with it but I walked the two miles more through that desolate country praising Mary.”

➤ In October of 1952, an Air Force officer in Texas wrote: “Six months ago, shortly after I started wearing the Scapular, I experienced a remarkable change in my life. Almost at once I started going to Mass every day. After a short time I started to receive Holy Communion daily. I kept Lent with a fervor I had never experienced before. I was introduced to the practice of meditation and found myself making feeble attempts on the way to perfection. I have been trying to live with God. I credit Mary’s Scapular.”

Pope Pius XII: “All Carmelites . . . (First, Second or Third Order) . . . belong to the same family of our Most Blessed Mother and are attached to it by a special bond of love. May they all see in this keepsake of the Virgin herself a mirror of humility and purity; may they read in the very simplicity of the Garment a concise lesson in modesty and simplicity; above all, may they behold in this same Garment, which they wear day and night, the eloquent expressive symbol of their prayers for divine assistance.”

When morning gilds the skies,
my heart awaking cries:
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Alike at work and prayer,
to Jesus I repair:
May Jesus Christ be praised!
May Jesus Christ be praised!

To God, the Word on high,
the hosts of angels cry:
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Let mortals, too, upraise
their voice in hymns of praise:
May Jesus Christ be praised!
May Jesus Christ be praised!
