*I clasp unto my heart this day the shielding strength of the Trinity,
By calling on Its mystic Name, the Three in One, The One in Three;
Through Whom all nature was created, Eternal Father, Spirit, Word:
I praise Thee, God of my Salvation, salvation won by Christ the Lord.*

*I clasp unto my heart this day with steadfast faith, Our Lord made man, and Him baptized in Jordan's flood; His Cross of death, Salvation's plan;
His rising from the enclosing tomb, His bright ascent to Heaven's way,
His coming on the day of doom, I clasp unto my heart this day.*

Glorious Saint Raphael, patron and lover of the young, I feel the need of calling to thee and pleading for thy help. In all confidence I open my heart to thee, to beg thy guidance and assistance in the important task of planning my future. Obtain for me the light of God's grace so that I may decide wisely concerning the person who is to be my partner through life. Angel of Happy Meetings, lead us by the hand to find each other. May all our movements be guided by thy light and transfigured by thy joy. As thou didst lead the young Tobias to Sara and opened up a new life of happiness with her in holy marriage, lead me to such a one whom in thine angelic wisdom thou judgest best suited to be united with me in marriage.

Saint Raphael, loving patron of those seeking a marriage partner, help me in this important decision of my life. Find for me as a help-mate the person whose character may reflect the traits of Jesus and Mary. May he (she) be upright, loyal, pure, sincere and noble, so that with united efforts and with chaste and unselfish love, we both may strive to perfect ourselves in soul and body, as well as the children it may please God to entrust to our care.

Saint Raphael, angel of chaste courtship, bless our friendship and our love, that sin may have no part in it. May our mutual love bind us so closely that our future home may ever be most like the home of the Holy Family of Nazareth. Offer your prayers to God for both of us and obtain the blessing of God upon our marriage, as thou wast the herald of blessings for the marriage of Tobias and Sara.

Saint Raphael, friend of the young, be thou my friend, for I shall always be thine. I desire ever to invoke thee in all my needs. To thy special care I entrust the decision as to my future husband (wife). Direct me to the person with whom I can best cooperate in doing God's Holy Will, with whom I can live in peace, love, and harmony in this life, and attain to eternal joy in the next. Amen.

We know the story of St Raphael the Archangel as it is related in the Book of Tobias, but may be less familiar with the story of the man for whom the chapter is named. These excerpts of counsels - the elder Tobias to his son, Tobias - are beautiful examples of parental care and guidance.

All the days of thy life have God in thy mind: and take heed thou never consent to sin, nor transgress the commandments of the Lord our God. Give alms out of thy substance, and turn not away thy face from any poor person: for so it shall come to pass that the face of the Lord shall not be turned from thee. According to thy ability be merciful. If thou have much, give abundantly: if thou have a little, take care even so to bestow willingly a little. For thus thou storest up to thyself a good reward for the day of necessity.

For alms deliver from all sin, and from death, and will not suffer the soul to go into darkness. Alms shall be a great confidence before the most high God, to all them that give it. Take heed to keep thyself, my son, from all fornication, and beside thy wife never endure to know a crime. Never suffer pride to reign in thy mind, or in thy words: for from it all perdition took its beginning. If any man hath done any work for thee, immediately pay him his hire, and let not the wages of thy hired servant stay with thee at all.

See thou never do to another what thou wouldst hate to have done to thee by another. Eat thy bread with the hungry and the needy, and with thy garments cover the naked. Lay out thy bread and thy wine upon the burial of a just man, and do not eat and drink thereof with the wicked. Seek counsel always of a wise man. Bless God at all times: and desire of Him to direct thy ways, and that all thy counsels may abide in Him.

Fear not, my son: we lead indeed a poor life, but we shall have many good things if we fear God, and depart from all sin, and do that which is good.

May you have a good journey, and God be with you in your way, and his angel accompany you.
