Thou Christ-Child dear, my Love, my All
Within a Host, so poor, so small,
Still greater than all worlds untold,
The God nor earth nor heav'n can hold!
Thou are delight most sweet to me,
My soul doth long and thirst for Thee!
How bright becomes my darkened mind
When nigh to Thee, repose I find.

Here at the crib I kneel apart
And nestle near Thy Mother's heart,
Here Bethlehem again is found,
And songs of angel hosts resound!
Here shines that fair resplendent star,
Which called the Magi from afar:
I mean the everlasting light
Before the altar ever bright!

Here do I find my rest, my home,
Here need I ne'er a stranger roam,
One Heart most loving here is mine:
The Heart within the Host divine!
Thou Lord of all, Thou little Child,
Thou God of pow'r, Thou Heart so mild,
Thou angels' joy, our Savior blessed,
Oh come and dwell within my breast!

And thou, dear Mother, I entreat,
Guide me to Him, thy Child most sweet,
In thy communing give me part:
Bring JESUS to my yearning heart!
Then shall my life a Christmas be,
Which e'er renews its bliss in me –
A pilgrimage to Him, my Lord,
A joyous hast'ning Bethlem-ward!

 WELCOME, visitors to our parish! We will be happy to visit with you as you are welcome to join us in enjoying a light breakfast & coffee in our St Joseph social hall after Mass today.

Angels we have heard on high, sweetly singing o'er the plains, and the mountains in reply echoing their joyous strains.
Shepherds, why this jubilee, why your joyous strains prolong? What the gladsome tidings be which inspire your heav'nly song?
See within a manger laid Jesus, Lord of Heav'n and earth! Mary, Joseph, lend your aid, with us sing our Savior's birth.
Come to Bethlehem and see Him Whose birth the angels sing! Come, adore on bended knee Christ the Lord, the newborn King!

Gloria in Excelsis Deo! Gloria in Excelsis Deo!

Mother, upon my lips today,
Christ's Precious Blood was laid;
That Blood which centuries ago,
Was for my ransom paid.
And half in love, and half in fear,
I seek for aid from thee,
Lest what I worship, wrapt in awe,
Should be profaned by me.
Wilt thou vouchsafe, as Portress dear,
To guard those lips today?
Lessen my words of idle worth
And govern all I say.
Keep back the sharp and quick retorts
That rise so easily;
Soften my speech with gentle art,
To sweetest charity.
Check thou the laugh or careless jest
That others harsh may find;
Teach me the thoughtful words of love,
That soothe the anxious mind.
Put far from me all proud replies,
And each deceitful tone,
So that my words at length may be
Faint echoes of thine own.
Oh Mother, thou art mine today
By more than double right:
A soul where Christ reposed must be
Most precious in thy sight!
And thou canst scarcely think of me
From thy dear Son apart;
Then give me, from myself and sin,
A refuge in thy heart.

If oblivion, neglect and even contempt were all that His own brought to the arrival of Jesus, look instead at Mary. Enter that grotto and observe all that is taking place. Enlightened by the Holy Ghost, Mary knows that the moment of the birth of her Divine Son is at hand. More than ever, she draws into most fervent prayer.

Draw close with confidence. Jesus is about to receive the first adoration, and with it the first caresses of a Mother! Mary adores her God, lying there, but as Mother, she is entitled to lift that little Child and imprint on His delicate cheeks the first kiss. With what ardent love she would kiss Him, what a warm embrace, what tender caresses! Imagine the smile of Jesus on seeing His Mother, so pure, so beautiful, so tender. The glance of Mary is joy and consolation for Jesus, as the glance of Jesus is an increase of grace and sanctity for Mary.

Approach Mary and ask her to let you hold her Son in your arms for a few moments. Entertain Him. Press Him against your heart and tell Him that He is enthroned there forever. Ask Him to leave His cradle and manger for the palace of your soul where you will give Him warmth and comfort. Ask Him to teach you how to love His Mother; ask His Mother to teach you how to love her Son.

Remember that the life of Jesus began with a glance at Mary, as it ended on the Cross with a glance at her. Do you not think this is a hint for you, telling you that your whole life should unfold under her eyes?

Jesus, Jesus, come to me ~
All my longing is for Thee!
