January: Month of the Divine Infancy and the Holy Name of Jesus

The apparition of the Child Jesus Crucified on Mount Pichincha, part of the story and message of Our Lady of Good Success in Quito, Ecuador, presents a vivid and moving picture of the Christ Child's great love for mankind and His great desire - even in His delicate youth - to suffer for their redemption. In it, Christ appears as a child or adolescent, embracing the Cross and asking this poignant question: "How can I do more to show My love for you?" Our Lady promised this image was destined to produce a great good for souls.

Mary, carrying her Divine Infant in her right arm, said to Mother Mariana: "Lift your eyes and look at the Pichincha Mountain, where you will see this Divine Infant Whom I carry in my arms, crucified. I deliver Him to the Cross so that He might always give good successes to this Republic."

The Archangels Michael, Gabriel and Raphael carried the Divine Child to Pichincha Mountain, which overlooks the city of Quito. Here the Child Jesus took the form of a boy of 12 to 15 years of age, His expression sweetly majestic. He prostrated Himself on the ground with His arms extended as on a cross and prayed to His Eternal Father to look with favor on Ecuador.

A celestial light enveloped the whole mountain, and the Christ Child rose and stood before a cross with the inscription INRI at its head. On its left arm hung a crown of sharp thorns; on its right, a white stole.

The three Archangels reappeared. St. Gabriel carried a white Host, St. Michael bore a long white tunic speckled with stars, and St. Raphael carried a mantle of a magnificent rose color. The Child Jesus vested Himself in the tunic and stole, and over them draped the magnificent mantle. Then He approached the cross, took the crown of thorns and placed it on His Head. He extended His arms and remained crucified, but without any nails appearing on His hands or feet. Down His cheeks streamed large tears, which were gathered up by St. Michael and St. Raphael and dispersed throughout the nation.

Jesus ordered St. Gabriel to place the Host behind His head, where it became a kind of halo. Three resplendent beams of light streamed from it. On the center ray appeared the word Love, and to the right and left the words Ecuador and Spain. His expression reflected intense pain, but also a serene joy to suffer for those whom He loved so dearly. As drops of blood fell from the wounds on His hands, feet and forehead, He fixed His gaze on the country and said these words:

"I can do no more to show My love for you. Ungrateful souls, who repay the great love and attentions of My Heart with contempt, sacrileges and blasphemies. At least you, My beloved and hidden spouses, be My consolation in My Eucharistic solitude. Keep watch in My Company. Do not be overcome by the sleep of indifference to God, Who loves you so much. Always be the heroines of your country during the bitter and dire times that will come. Your humble, secret, and silent prayer and voluntary penances will save it from the destruction toward which its ungrateful sons will lead it."

Our Lady continued, "You saw my Divine Child crucified on Pichincha Mountain. This was not by mere chance. Since this mountain dominates the city, my Most Holy Son wants to sanctify this place, where the His Sacred Heart wants to exercise His dominion.

"We desire that you have pictures made of this vision. On them should be written the words that you heard from the lips of your Crucified Love. These pictures will travel throughout the world and will be the source of holy inspirations."

Our modern age preaches: "Youth is made for pleasure! Have a good time! - you're only young once!" This devotion encourages young people to embrace the Cross, to renounce pleasures, even legitimate ones, in preparation for eternity. The Christ Child on the Cross of the Pichincha presents a poignant picture of a youth Who embraces the Cross in His love for mankind - and an example for those who would follow in His footsteps.

The King of Love my Shepherd is Whose goodness faileth never,
I nothing lack if I am His,
and He is mine forever!

Where streams of living waters flow,
my ransomed soul He leadeth
And where the verdant pastures grow, with Food Celestial feedeth.

And so thru all the length of days,
Thy goodness faileth never Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise within Thy house forever!
