Announcements . . .

- * Monday - Saturday Holy Masses will be at 9:00AM for the time being.
- * Congratulations, First Communicant * Cyrus Lee Giarratano! Your heart holds what the entire universe cannot! God!
- * Catechism Camp Our annual Catechism Week with the Sisters had to be canceled this year. Other summer camps may still be held; please confirm with individual sponsors before making definite plans.
- * Feast of the Queenship Blessed Virgin Mary has been transferred from May 31 this year. We will pray our Queenship of Mary prayer as usual on this feast as it has been composed by Pope Pius XII in 1954 specifically for this feast.
- * Priests' annual retreat will take place this week. Father will be gone until Saturday to fulfill this obligation in keeping up with his spiritual life.
- * Feast of Corpus Christi In lieu of our usual grand Procession next Sunday, we will have Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament immediately after each of the Masses.

*Daughter, Mother, Spouse of heaven!
Blossom which will ne'er decay*

Sweetest Gift to man e'er given Macula non est in te!

The Catholic faith is this: that we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity; neither confounding the Persons, nor dividing the Essence.

The Father is made of none; neither created, nor begotten. The Son is of the Father alone; not made, nor created; but begotten. The Holy Ghost is of the Father and of the Son; neither made, nor created, nor begotten; but proceeding. So there is one Father, one Son, one Holy Ghost. And in this Trinity none is before, or after another; none is greater, or less than another. But the whole three Persons are coeternal, and coequal. So that in all things, as aforesaid; the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity, is to be worshipped.

He therefore that will be saved, let him thus think of the Trinity.

Athanasian Creed

GLORIA PATRI, ET FILIO, ET SPIRITUI SANCTO !

The most holy Virgin, who is a Mother of sweetness and mercy, and who never lets herself be outdone in love and liberality, seeing that we give ourselves entirely to her, to honor and to serve her, and for that end strip ourselves of all that is dearest to us, in order to adorn her, meets us in the same spirit. She also gives her whole self, and gives it in an unspeakable manner, to him who gives all to her. She causes him to be engulfed in the abyss of her graces. She adorns him with her merits; she supports him with her power; she illuminates him with her light; she inflames him with her love; she communicates to him her virtues: her humility, her faith, her purity and the rest. She makes herself his bail, his supplement, and his dear all toward Jesus. in a word, as that consecrated person is all Mary's, so Mary is all his; after such a fashion that we can say of that perfect servant and child of Mary what St John the Evangelist said of himself, that he took the holy Virgin for his own: "The disciple took her for his own."

O Mary, my Queen and my Mother, I give myself entirely to thee!

O eternal Trinity!

You are a deep sea in which the more I seek, the more I find!
and the more I find, the more I seek to know You.

You are the supreme and infinite Good, good above all good;
Good which is joyful, incomprehensible, inestimable;
Beauty exceeding all other beauty;

Wisdom surpassing all wisdom, because You are Wisdom itself.

Food of angels, giving Yourself with fire of love to men!

You are the garment which covers our nakedness;
You feed us, hungry as we are, with Your sweetness,
because You are all sweetness with no bitterness.

Clothe me, O eternal Trinity, clothe me with Yourself, so that I may pass this mortal life in true obedience and in the light of the most holy faith with which You have inebriated my soul.
