Announcements . . .

- * Critical Importance of Voting With the elections coming up soon, you are reminded of the grave importance of voting in favor of good candidates and on moral issues that may appear on the ballot as well. To vote for a pro-choice candidate is to partake of their very grievous sin of killing unborn children. Novus Ordo Watch has an excellent article titled: The Morality of Voting: Is it Permissible to Vote for the Lesser of two Evils?

- * MISSION SUNDAY is next week, October 18. Pope Pius XI designated the second last Sunday of October as Mission Sunday, a day for Catholics to pray for and contribute to the missions. It was meant to remind the Catholic faithful of the importance of praying, sacrificing, and supporting the mission field of the Catholic Church. Today, the traditional movement is the mission field, as our priests travel extensively to provide the Mass and Sacraments for souls not only around the country, but in other countries as well.
- * Welcome, Ronan John Vroom! Born to Christian and Kathy, and baptized yesterday. God bless you, little one!

Queen of the Rosary, roses we bring thee:
white buds of happiness
from thine own, who love thee!

Red blooms for pain untold blend with royal rose of gold:

Roses, roses for Mary!

Queen Maiden, hail to thee, sweet Maid of Galilee!

Soft on thy heart lies thy White Rose, small Jesus.
Joy, joy within thy heart,
grant us of thy bliss a part,

Mary, Mother of Jesus!

Queen of the Rosary, roses we bring thee:

Red dyed in Blood of Him the Crucified, Christ Jesus.

Mother all agony, teach me how to bear like thee.

Suff'ring Queen of the Rosary!

Queen-Mother, hail to thee! time and eternity echo the glorious cry:

Queen of men and angels!
Gold flow'rs of royalty,
roses gold we give to thee!

Mary,
Queen of the Rosary!

On the Sister-Scene:

- * Congregation of the Mother of God Pray for the good Sisters who celebrate their patronal feast today. Congratulations to Sr. Marie Agnes, CMD on her 25th Anniversary of Vows!
- * October 18: Sisters'-Students' Bake Sale to benefit the convent and school. Thank you for your generosity and support!

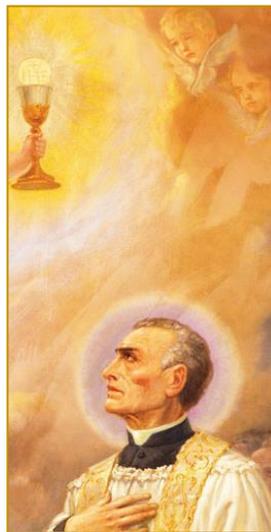

October 13, 1917: Our Lady's Words "I want to tell you to have them build a chapel here in my honor. I am the Lady of the Rosary. Let them continue to say the Rosary every day. The war is going to end, and the soldiers will return to their homes." "... It is necessary that they amend their lives and ask pardon for their sin." "Let them offend our Lord God no more, for He is already much offended."

What the children saw next: There stood out in the zenith above three tableaus which symbolized, one after another, the Joyous, the Sorrowful, and the Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary. The first was of the Holy Family. Lucia was heard to say, "Saint Joseph is going to bless us!" which he did, three times. The Holy Child did likewise. The next vision was of Our Lady of Sorrows in the somber garb of the Mater Dolorosa of Good Friday, without the sword in her breast. Beside her stood her Divine Son, grieving as when He met her on the way to Calvary. He looked pityingly on the crowd for whom He had died, and raised His Hand to make the Sign of the Cross over them. Our Lady then appeared in a vision of glory as Our Lady of Mount Carmel, crowned as Queen of Heaven and of the world, her Infant Son upon her knee.

"Come to Me, all you who labor and are burdened, and you shall find rest for your souls."

On May 18, 1907, the Sacred Congregation of Indulgences granted an indulgence to all the faithful who gaze at the Sacred Host with faith, devotion and love, either at the Elevation of the Mass or when It is solemnly exposed in the monstrance, saying at the same time: "My Lord and my God."

Saint Gertrude received from Our Lord the assurance that for every look of love and devotion which we turn to the Sacred Host, we merit an increase of glory in heaven; and when once we behold God face to face, we shall participate in as many special joys as we shall have directed loving glances toward the Blessed Sacrament, or even desired to when prevented. What a glorious promise!

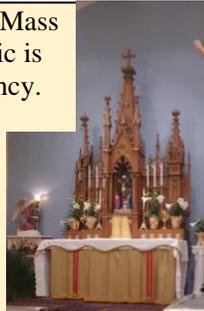

When the Apostle Thomas said, "My Lord and my God!" we may be sure he did not keep his eyes cast down, but looked with open and sincere gaze into the eyes of his Master. We do not, indeed, see Him with our bodily eyes as Thomas saw him, but the light of Faith clearly reveals to us that the Sacred Host at which we gaze is no longer earthly bread, but Jesus, the God-man, the immortal King of heaven and earth, Who at the word of the priest has become present upon the altar.

Bishop Pivarunas' dispensation from the Precept of Attending Mass on Sundays and Holydays will continue as long as the pandemic is active within the state, or until further notice from His Excellency.
