Apparitions of December 9 - 12, 1531

I wish that a temple be erected here, so I may therein exhibit and give all my love, compassion, help, and protection, because I am your merciful Mother; to you, and to all the inhabitants of this land and all the rest who love me, invoke and confide in me; (I will) listen there to their lamentations, and remedy all their miseries, afflictions and sorrows.

Hear me and understand well, my little son, that nothing should frighten or grieve you. Let not your heart be disturbed. Do not fear sickness or anguish. Am I not here, who is your Mother? Are you not under my protection? Am I not your health? Are you not within the folds of my mantle? What else do you wish? Do not grieve nor be disturbed by anything.

“All our perfection consists in being conformed, united and consecrated to Jesus Christ” ~ how can I most closely imitate Jesus during this Advent season?

“LEARN OF ME”

This good Master did not disdain to shut Himself up in the womb of the Blessed Virgin, as a captive and as a loving slave, and later to be subject and obedient to her for thirty years. It is here that the human mind loses itself, when it seriously reflects on the conduct of the Incarnate Wisdom, Who willed to give Himself to men not directly, though He might have done so, but through the Blessed Virgin. He did not will to come into the world at the age of a perfect man, independent of others, but like a poor little babe, dependent on the care and support of His holy Mother. He is that Infinite Wisdom Who had a boundless desire to glorify God His Father and to save men, and yet He found no more perfect means, no shorter way to do it, than to submit Himself in all things to the Blessed Virgin, not only during the first eight, ten, or fifteen years of His life, like other children, but for thirty years. He gave more glory to God His Father during all that time of submission to and dependence on our Blessed Lady than He would have given Him if He had employed those thirty years in working miracles, in preaching to the whole world, and in converting all men, all of which He would have done could He have thereby contributed more to God’s glory. Oh, how highly we glorify God, when after the example of Jesus, we submit ourselves to Mary!

Having, then, before our eyes an example so plain and so well known to the whole world, are we so senseless as to imagine that we can find a more perfect or a shorter means of glorifying God than that of submitting ourselves to Mary, after the example of her Son?

*O Thou Whom nations sighed for,
Whom priest and prophet long foretold
Wilt break the captive’s fetters,
redeem the long-lost fold.
Dear Savior, haste: Come, come to earth!
Dispel the night and show Thy Face,
and bid us hail the Dawn of Grace!*

Hail and blessed be the hour and the moment in which the Son of God was born of the most pure Blessed Virgin Mary, at midnight, in Bethlehem, in the piercing cold.

In that hour vouchsafe, O my God, to hear my prayer and grant my petitions, through the merits of Our Savior Jesus Christ and of His Blessed Mother. Amen.
